

Student Affairs Committee Committee Student Quality of Life Report

Marc Heinrich, Chair

Overview

- Student satisfaction
- Student concerns
- Next steps

Student Satisfaction

- Students slightly satisfied with Columbia experience
  - PhD-track and undergraduate students are slightly more dissatisfied than non-PhD graduates.
  - Satisfaction with Safety and Academics ranked higher across all populations than Fitness, Funding, and Space.

Student Concerns

- Student accessibility to administration
  - Perceived inaccessibility to administrators
- Dissatisfaction among three student demographics: low-income, disabled, and transgender.
  - Low-income students: less satisfied with social lives and perceive greater academic struggles than higher income students, dissatisfaction of financial aid and ability to manage daily expenses
  - Disabled students: accessibility to classrooms and buildings

SAC Action Items

- Formation of two subcommittees: financial insecurity and disability services
  - Committee makeup of student, administrative, and faculty members
- SAC will host a speaker series with faculty and administrators presenting on their areas of interest.

Questions

Thank you for your attention.