Rules of University Conduct

Appeals Board

The Executive Committee of the University Senate has appointed Lisa Rosen-Metsch, Dean of the School of General Studies, to the Appeals Board, the three-member panel that hears appeals under the Rules of University Conduct. Gillian Lester, Dean of the School of Law, has been appointed Chair of the Appeals Board, succeeding Peter Awn, who recently stepped down as Dean of the School of General Studies.

Rules of University Conduct §445. Administrative and Judicial Personnel

d. Appeals Board. The Appeals Board shall hear all appeals from decisions or sanctions imposed by the University Judicial Board or, in cases of informal resolution, decisions or sanctions imposed by the Chair of the UJB, or by the Chair's designee. The Appeals Board may overturn, affirm, or revise the decision, and it may overturn, affirm, or lessen the sanction. The Executive Committee of the University Senate shall at its first meeting each year appoint or fill vacancies in an Appeals Board consisting of three members, each of whom is a Dean of School or Division. The Executive Committee shall designate the chair of the board and shall make appointments to the board, which shall ordinarily be for a term of three years, so as to provide for staggered terms to ensure continuity in the board. The members of the Appeals Board shall be persons from within the University. Members of the Board will not be from the school of the respondent.

The three members of the Appeals Board are:

Gillian Lester, Dean of the School of Law. Gillian Lester is Chair of the Appeals Board

Lisa Rosen-Metsch, Dean of the School of General Studies

Christian S. Stohler, Dean of the College of Dental Medicine

Alternates

Mary C. Boyce, Dean of the Fu Foundation School of Engineering and Applied Science

Stephen Coll, Dean of the School of Journalism
